

OLYMPIC PARK INSTITUTE

Being Freed at Last: Amazing Elwha River Story

October 21-23, 2011 Participants:

Educators: Program Support:

Cabins:

Friday	Saturday	Sunday
WELCOME to Olympic Park Institute!	Good Morning!	Good Morning! Cabin Clean-Up Please move belongings to vehicles by 9:00 to help cleaning staff.
	6:45 am Yoga with Jeni	6:45 am Yoga with Jeni
	8:00 Breakfast in Rosemary Inn	8:00 Breakfast in Rosemary Inn
Registration in main office between 3-5 pm Move in to Cabins	9:00 Morning Gathering Group 1 Explore Elwha River Watershed: Watch a dam removal simulation and then study the path of a salmon smolt heading out to sea. You will have a chance to explore the cultural and historical significance of the Elwha River Restoration Project. 10 am Rafting the Elwha Group 2: Remember to bring good rain gear to go rafting in and shoes that secure to your foot and can get wet.	9:00 Morning Gathering Group 1&2 Field Trip: Head to the lower part of the Elwha River and test the river's water quality and study the effects of the dam on sediment and nutrient flow in the river.
	Group lunch	Picnic lunches to go
5:30 Meet in Gazebo for orientation (Each family group only needs to have 1 representative at the orientation) 5:45 Whole Group Tour meet in gazebo	Group 2 Explore Elwha River Watershed: Watch a dam removal simulation and then study the path of a salmon smolt heading out to sea. You will have a chance to explore the cultural and historical significance of the Elwha River Restoration Project. 2pm Group 1 Raft: Remember to bring good rain gear to go rafting in and shoes that secure to your foot and can get wet.	Depart from Rafting Facility THANKS for joining us in the Olympics!
	4:30 pm Pick up your kids. Family Free Time
	5:00 Family Yoga with Jeni
6:00 Dinner In Rosemary Inn	6:00 Dinner In Rosemary Inn
7:15 Evening Gathering 7:30 – 8:30 Evening Program : Elwha River Presentation	7:15 Evening Gathering 7:30 – 9:00 Evening Program : Campfire and S'mores
9:30 Quiet Hours begin; Good Night!	9:30 Quiet Hours begin; Good Night!

