

Olympic WEST: Fall Forest Retreat

A Fall Retreat in the Old-Growth Forest for Washington State Teachers and Their Families

Need a relaxing way to connect with your family and your colleagues while receiving clock hours?
Fit in one more northwest adventure with your family before winter arrives!

Participate in our Olympic WEST series - Watershed and Environmental Science Training - at Olympic Park Institute.

During this training session, teachers study field science and inquiry-based learning methods that they can bring back to their classrooms and neighborhoods.

Be here at the beginning of the fall season in Olympic National Park while learning content and activities that can be applied to your classroom and implemented in your school yard.

Explore old-growth forests at Barnes Point and aging, riparian forests along the clear waters of Barnes Creek and Marymere Falls.

Dates: 5:00 pm Friday, Oct 2nd through 4:00 pm Sunday, Oct 4th, 2009

Tuition: $45 per teacher (meals and lodging included)
$60 per non-participating guest
Free for children ages 9 and under. Childcare is not provided, please make arrangements for supervision.

Participants: Washington State Teachers and their families

Clock Hours: 6-14 hours available, at an additional $2.50/hr

Register Today!

Ask for Margaret
800.775.3720 ext 10
mstultz@naturebridge.org

Olympic Park Institute, a campus of NatureBridge, is a nonprofit environmental education organization, dedicated to connecting kids to nature through science.

Our campus is situated on the south shore of Lake Crescent within Olympic National Park, three hours from Seattle and twenty miles west of Port Angeles on Highway 101.

Your cozy cabin is a short walk from the lake. Hearty meals are served in historic Rosemary Inn, where we can accommodate vegetarian and other special dietary needs.