

OLYMPIC PARK INSTITUTE
 Restoring a River: The Amazing Elwha River Story
October 21-23, 2011 Participants:
Educators: 1 Program Support:
Cabins:

Friday	Saturday	Sunday
WELCOME to Olympic Park Institute!	Good Morning!	Good Morning! Cabin Clean-Up Please move belongings to vehicles by 9:00 to help cleaning staff.
	6:45 am Yoga with Jeni	6:45 am Yoga with Jeni
	8:00 Breakfast in Rosemary Inn	8:00 Breakfast in Rosemary Inn
Registration in main office between 3-5 pm Move in to Cabins Host Needed	9:00 Morning Gathering Explore Elwha River Watershed: Watch a dam removal simulation and then study the path of a salmon smolt heading out to sea. You will have a chance to explore the cultural and historical significance of the Elwha River Restoration Project.	9:00 Morning Gathering Flying Tour of the Elwha Watershed
	Group lunch	Picnic lunches to go
5:30 Meet in Gazebo for orientation 5:45 Campus Tour	Head to the lower part of the Elwha River and test the river's water quality and study the effects of the dam on sediment and nutrient flow in the river.	Depart from Airport THANKS for joining us in the Olympics!
	4:30 pm Free Time
6:00 Dinner in Rosemary Inn	6:00 Dinner in Rosemary Inn
7:15 Evening Gathering 7:30 – 8:30 Evening Program: Elwha River Presentation	7:15 Evening Gathering 7:30 – 9:00 Evening Program: Elwha River Expert (ie mammals, revegetation, etc.)
9:30 Quiet Hours begin; Good Night!	9:30 Quiet Hours begin; Good Night!	