Alcohol Use Policy

Amendment A

Alcohol Use Policy

The Headlands Institute is a private non-profit organization dedicated to providing educational adventures in nature's classroom to inspire a personal connection to the natural world and responsible actions to sustain it. In order to provide a safe and comfortable environment for all students and conference guests of the Headlands Institute, the Institute requires that all guests strictly abide by its alcohol use policy. Failure to comply with this policy can result in removal from the premises and being banned from returning to the Headlands Institute campus.

Alcohol Use on The Headlands Institute Campus

1. The responsible consumption of beer and wine alcoholic beverages is permitted for conference guests, who are 21 years of age or over. It is the responsibility of the group to assure compliance with all federal, state and local laws concerning the consumption of alcohol and the Alcohol Use Policy of The Headlands Institute.
2. Hard alcohol is strictly prohibited.
3. No alcoholic beverages are permitted for any gathering, such as wedding receptions.
4. Beer and wine may only be consumed in meetings rooms.
5. Beer and wine cannot be consumed outdoors, in dormitories, or in common spaces.
6. Beer and wine may be served only by a member of the group that is 21 years of age or older.
7. Guests under age 21 may not acquire, possess, or consume alcohol. Nor may other persons furnish alcohol to anyone under 21 or permit any underage consumption.
8. Alcohol may not be sold on The Headlands Institute premises.
9. Advertising and publicity for events at The Headlands Institute may not mention the availability of alcoholic beverages even if they are to be served at the event.
10. Any person who chooses to drink alcoholic beverages should be advised that he or she is expected to do so responsibly and at their own risk.
11. Guests should be asked to leave if they fail to comply with these guidelines or if their behavior infringes on the rights of other guests.

Your compliance with The Headlands Institute's Alcohol Use Policy (the "Alcohol Policy") helps ensure that both students and conference guests of The Headlands Institute have a safe and comfortable place to learn and enjoy themselves.

I hereby acknowledge and represent that I have read and understand this Alcohol Policy, will comply with it and take full responsibility for the safe and appropriate consumption of alcohol by our group in accordance with federal, state and local laws. I acknowledge and agree that any violation of the Alcohol Policy will be immediately reported to a representative of The Headlands Institute.
