

OLYMPIC PARK INSTITUTE
 Restoring a River: Amazing Elwha River Story
October 14-16, 2011 Participants:
Educators: Program Support:
Cabins:

Friday	Saturday	Sunday
WELCOME to Olympic Park Institute!	Good Morning!	Good Morning! Cabin Clean-Up Please move belongings to vehicles by 9:00 to help cleaning staff.
	8:00 Breakfast in Rosemary Inn	8:00 Breakfast in Rosemary Inn
Registration in main office between 3-5 pm Move in to Cabins Host Needed	9:00 Morning Gathering Explore Elwha River Watershed: Watch a dam removal simulation and then study the path of a salmon smolt heading out to sea. You will have a chance to explore the cultural and historical significance of the Elwha River Restoration Project.	9:00 Morning Gathering Head to the lower part of the Elwha River and test the river's water quality and study the effects of the dam on sediment and nutrient flow in the river.
	Group lunch	Picnic lunches to go
5:30 Meet in Gazebo for orientation 5:45 Campus Tour	2pm Raft: Remember to bring good rain gear to go rafting in and shoes that secure to your foot and can get wet.	Depart from Rafting Facility THANKS for joining us in the Olympics!
	4:00 Free Time
6:00 Dinner in Rosemary Inn	6:00 Dinner in Rosemary Inn
7:15 Evening Gathering 7:30 – 8:30 Evening Program: Elwha River Presentation	7:15 Evening Gathering 7:30 – 9:00 Evening Program: Campfire and S'mores
9:30 Quiet Hours begin; Good Night!	9:30 Quiet Hours begin; Good Night!	